American League Games Today. Washington at Cleveland. Baltimore at St. Louis. Philadelphia at Chicago.

Sunday ball playing is prohibited in Cleveland and the game that was scheduled for that city yesterday between the Senators and Spiders, was played at Columbus, before a turnout of nearly 4,500 persons. After the disastrous experience in sons. After the disastrous experience in Detroit, the Washingtons managed to pull themselves together and win their first game on the present trip, the score being 5 to 2 in their favor.

The contest was fast and enjoyable from the start, not a misplay being made by the Clevelands, while the Senators had two, both by Delehanty at first. But the two errors cut but little figure, as the Senators were continually killing off base hits, the work of Coughlin and Ely being of the sensational class. The former had ten chances and captured them all, many of which were very difficult, while the latter had seven and also went down the line without a slip. Jack Doyle at second also did some clever work, while the youngster in center, Jimmy Ryan, captured everything that came his way.

Carrick in Good Form.

"Wee Willie" Carrick continues in good form and his work yesterday again demonstrated that he is one of the best, as the Cleveland sluggers had to be content with six hits. Bernhard did the twirling for Cleveland and he also performed in first-class style, but he turned his ankle in the fifth inning, which handicapped his work and he finally retired in the eighth with the score a tie. A young pitcher by the name of Hess, recently picked up by Manager Armour, relieved Bernhard and his curves were just what the Senators had been looking for all day. Two singles and Cleveland sluggers had to be content with been looking for all day. Two singles and a double, coupled with a base on balls, were quickly registered and when the last man had been retired the Senators had hung up three runs, plenty to win the game as Carrick continued his great work had the best of the argument, the Cham-

The work of catcher Clarke attracted attention on account of his good throwing, while the playing of Bemis suffered in contrast. The Senators have not much of a reputation as base runners, but they quickly discerned that Bemis' right arm was not in the best of shape, and went down to second with impunity. Six stolen bases in all were registered for one by the Spiders, quite a record for the sluggish Senators.

Doyle's out and coming home on Delehanty's single. In the third the Senators got another run as a result of Delehanty's single, a steal of second by the same player and Keister's timely single into left. In the same inning Cleveland hung up one run, although the bases were filled, with no one out. Bemis was given a base on balls and reached second in safety when Ely tried to get Bernhard's grounder there ahead of him. Bay followed with a bunt and Carrick lost the little sprinter as he turned toward third to catch Bemis, who had got a good start and was safe. Bradbut Bernhard was held on second by the Senator's good throw. Jimmy Ryan gathered in Lajoie's fly and Hickman closed the inning, as Coughlin scooped up his grounder and got it to first ahead of him. This was a big hole and a lucky escape.

Neither side could get a man over the plate for the next four innings, but in the eighth Cleveland tied the score by making one run. With one out Bay singled and CHICAGO.

In the ninth the Senators hung up three runs and the game. Delehanty was the first man up and he retired on a fly to center. Billy Keister did better, a sharp single to left going from his bat. SENATORS SHUT OUT.

Detroits Made a Runaway Contest of win the victory. Score: the Closing Game.

The Senators played the Detroits Saturday afternoon and were defeated by the score of 8 to 0, ending the nightmare in the wolverine city. The three defeats sustained by the Washingtons from the Detroits were something to be ashamed of, but no doubt President Postal and Manager Loftus can satisfactorily explain. threes. With the exception of Doyle, the Senators fielded well. Delehanty at first getting fifteen chances without a slip.

Billy Keister gave his ankle a bad twist and had to retire from the game, Orth taking his place in right field. Catcher Clarke also retired toward the close and permitted Drill to finish.

The game was one of the shortest on record, but one hour and seventeen minutes being consumed.

Hugh Jennings as a Manager. From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

That nothing succeeds like success is again proven, this time by the case of Hugh Jennings. This time last year the Phillies were playing grand ball, the credit for which was bestowed rather lavishly upon Jennings. At the time the Old Sport was inclined to take exception to the extravagant praise with which Jennings was lauded, and made the point that possibly Delehanty, Flick, Wolverton, Orth and Duggle-by had something to do with it. Now the reverse condition of affairs exists. The club is not doing so well, and Jennings is getting a handpainted roast from the spectators. This is all wrong. You can't make a 2.40 horse step at a 20 clip. Jennings no more deserves the roasting he is now receiving than he did the fulsome praise accorded him last year. Last year he had the tools; this year he has not. Now, however, he has the opportunity to demonstrate whether he has the genius for management. The veriest tyro could have landed the Phillies second last year, for taking them individually and collectively they formed the sec-ond strongest combination in the National League. Besides, they were bent upon win ning the pennant if possible in order to enhance their value in the American League. Totals...11 11 27 13 4 | Totals... 9 15 24 10 3 It takes a born manager to take a team such as the Phillies now are, build them up, and shape them into championship possibilities. So far Mr. Jennings has not given the slightest evidence of possessing the genius or any particular genius in that line. When he took hold of the club on June 16 it had a winning percentage of .474 and stood fifth in the race. Now it has a percentage of 409 and stands seventh in the

The Norris Peters Base Ball Club defeated the strong Radford team in a wellplayed and exciting game at American League Park Saturday afternoon by a score of 13 to 9. Saturday evening, before quite a crowd of highly interested spectators, the Olympia Athletic Club triumphed over the team representing the Fourth Presbyterian Church on the latter's grounds, in Mount Pleasant. At the end of the eighth inning, when darkness set in, the Olympias had secured the game by the score of 6 to 5. The game abounded in spectacular catches, terrific drives and quick, snappy infield plays, and kept the spectators keyed up to an excited pitch throughout. This was the third game of the series, the Olympias capturing the first and the Fourth Presbyterians winning the second by the score of 7 to 6. The bat teries were Kelley, Graff and Woodward, O. A. Joe Nelson Against Nat Butler Wednesday Night.

EVENT AT COLISEUM

FIRST LOCAL RACE OF THE KIND IN SIX WEEKS.

Nelson Rode the Fastest Mile of the Season at Pittsburg Last Week.

Little Jos Nelson will meet Nat Butler in a motor-paced cycle race next Wednesday night at the Coliseum, 14th and East Capitol streets. It will be the first race of the kind at the Coliseum in six weeks, owing to the inclement weather that prevailed in July, and also because of the inability to get riders to leave the New England tracks. Nelson is a new star and just at present he is on the top rung of success, as he is now equipped with a ten-horse power motor that gives him splendid pace. Nelson won the 25-mile motor-paced match race at Revere Beach cycle track on Wednesday evening last, but was robbed of his victory by Referee Dick Kelsey, it is alleged by Manager F. Ed Spooner. Mr. Spooner has filed a protest against the decision of the referee in awarding the race to Hugh Mc-Lean, protesting to both the board of control and the board of appeals of the National Cycling Association.

Race Was Stopped. McLean fell and after Nelson had gained the lead and Moran had gained second the pistol was fired, the race was stopped and the referee awarded the race to McLean, claiming that by a mere wave of his hand he, Mr. Kelsey, stopped the race at the time of the accident, claiming this action to have been taken owing to the condition of the track. Nelson and Moran quickened their gait eight seconds to the mile after the fall and neither rider nor neither motor slipped in any way, according to Nelson, Moran and the motormen. McLean's team, which fell, nor McLean would claim that side slipping caused the accident at the time it occurred, but later said that it did, yet Nelson and Moran passed over the same point again and again, and at eight seconds' better speed, or one second to the lap. The only agreement for the race previous to the start was to the effect that accidents in the first mile would necessitate a call back and that two pistol shots would announce the finish of the race. When the pistol shots occurred Nelson led with 21 miles 3 laps, Moran was second with 21 miles 2 laps and McLean's score was 20 miles 4 laps. After his accident McLean mounted and started again, but got off his wheel and talked to the referee, after which the de-cision was given. The protest is against the awarding of the race except upon the actual finish at the pistol shots, the scorers having given their score at that time and having had not the slightest knowledge of any earlier stoppage of the contest. Error of the referee is claimed, while it is also stated that his action was entirely without precedent in going back a mile from the finish to find a point to stop the contest, at which point the victory could be awarded to McLean.

Fastest Mile of the Season.

At Pittsburg last week Nelson made phenomenal time back of his big "red devil" motor and broke Albert Champion's record the race was given to Lord Derby.

on that track. His time was as follows:

The result was a bitter disapped. First five miles, 6.37; average per mile, 1.19 2-5. First ten miles, 13.39; average per mile, 1.22. Fifteen miles, 20.56; average per mile, 1.23 3-5. Twenty miles, 28.16; average per mile, 1.24 4-5. Twenty-five miles, 35.44 3-5; average per mile, 1.25 2-5. Last mile, 1.18 3-5, it being the fastest mile this year in a cycle race.

Vailsburg Cycle Races. A heavy storm interfered greatly with the Vailsburg, N. J., bicycle races yesterday, many of the entered riders failing to appear. The best race of the day was the twenty-mile struggle for amateurs. Hurley did not start, but about twenty-five others did, and the race was a good one throughout. J. Rockowitz led most of the way and captured the time prize. Schlee held a prominent place throughout, and, sprinting the last lap, won by two lengths.

The scurry dash brought out a good field. McFarland laid back to the last lap, where he went to the front and won in a fine sprint by half a length.

Derby, worth $10,000, run at Brighton There were originally four starters, but Green Morris scratched Old England, depending upon his stable mate, Homestead, to carry the Morris colors to victory. The starters were Major Daingerfield, 126 (Shaw up); Hyphen, 111 (Odom), and Homestead, Derby from the start. He took 111 (Jackson). Major Daingerfield was always a consistent favorite, closing at even money; Hyphen second choice at 6 to 5, and Homestead quoted at 8 to 1. The start was good. Hyphen broke in front, the favorite second. Rounding into the stretch Hyphen was galloping, while the Major was under whip and spurs. Shaw, realizing he had no chance to win, eased up his mount. Hyphen galloped home four lengths in front of Major Daingerfield. Homestead was last and was beaten nearly a sixteenth of a mile. The time (2.04 1-5) was remarkably fast, as the track was not at its best. Julius Fleischman's Hurstbourne, the fa-vorite, with Redfern up, won the Brighton Junior stakes for two-year-olds. The race was a six-furlong dash and brought out a fairly well-matched field of colts. Hurst-bourne was quoted at 11 to 20; the Keen stable's Dalesman and Prediction, second choice at 3 to 1, and Capt. Brown's colt

Blue Ribbon, next in demand, at 10 to 1. Blue Ribbon set the pace up to the back stretch, closely followed by the favorite. Redfern by hard riding managed to get Hurstbourne up in the last stride to win by a short head. Blue Ribbon was six lengths in front of Woodlake. Jockey McFadden was badly hurt by a fall in the sixth race. There was some crowding in the stretch and as a result three horses fell. The other riders escaped

WINNERS AT BRIGHTON.

Gen. McLewee's Stable Secured the Most Prize Money. The meeting of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, which came to an end with the races Saturday afternoon at Brighton Beach, has been a great help to many horsemen, as nearly one hundred and forty owners shared in the division of the purses. The stables of J. R. & F. P. Keene, F. C. McLewee & Co. and Green B. Morris obtained the bulk of the money, and the question of which would be first and second on the list was not settled until the Brighton Junior and Brighton Derby stakes had been decided, as Mr. Morris had entries in both decided, as Mr. Morris had entries in both stakes, while the Keenes were represented in the Brighton Junior and General McLewee in the Derby. Most of the money won by General McLewee was earned by Gold Heel's victories in the Brighton Handicap and the Brighton Cup, while Homestead, Old England, Gravina and Gold Van did the bulk of the work for the Morris stable. The Keenes' best breadwinner was the two-year-old Hurst Park, although Port Royal, Orlow Injunction and a few others confielded the Bostons Saturday, while playing at home, the latter managed to win by the score of 2 to 1. LORD DERBY WON. Boralma Injured and Great Trotting

Match a Disappointment. An accident marred what was expected would prove to be the greatest trotting event in turf history at Hartford, Conn., Saturday. In the third heat of the $50,000 match race between Lord Derby, owned by E. E. Smathers of New York, and Boralma. of which Thomas W. Lawson of Boston is the owner, the latter horse sustained an injury which caused him to be drawn, and The result was a bitter disappointment not only to the owner of the Boston horse, but to the general public, which, to the number of 15,000, congregated at Charter Oak Park. The injury to Boraima is such that he will probably be prevented from racing for some time to come. In scoring the Boston horse gashed the quarter of his nigh foreleg badly, and was unable to start in the fourth heat.

The day was perfect for racing. A light breeze prevailed, but it was not strong enough to interfere with the speed of the horses. The track was in splendld shape, and everything was favorable to record-breaking time. Horsemen from all over the country were on hand to witness the

Among the celebrities who occupied boxes were W. C. Whitney and B. F. Tracy, both former secretaries of the navy, and Arnold Lawson of Boston, a son of Boralma's owner, was seated in a box beside John Roach, the representative of Thomas W. Lawson Lord Derby was a hot favorite in the betting. Just before the first heat odds of

2 to 1 were freely offered on him. When even, and at the close of the second heat which was won by Lord Derby, they shift-ed decidedly in favor of the latter. The judges were C. R. S. Billings of Chicago, R. E. Perrin of Buffalo and ex-

Mayor Harbison of Hartford, Frank B Walker of New York acted as starter. The racers came on the track shortly after 3 o'clock, Lord Derby, with Geers behind him, being the first to appear, and was greeted with loud applause. Boralma followed about a minute later, and the cheering which marked his appearance showed that he was the favorite with the and chose the pole.

After scoring three times, during which Geers showed a disposition to hold back Lord Derby, Starter Walker gave the word to go. The Boston horse outstepped Lord of the pole at the first turn and held it all the way. The horses were about a length apart until the home stretch was reached. As they came toward the wire Lord Derby swerved and broke, and Boralma came under the wire four lengths ahead in 2.08 heat.

As the horses came to the track for the second heat Geers expressed confidence that Lord Derby would win. The horses got off promptly, and Boralma led until the distance pole was passed. Then Lord Derby drew up and shot by Boralma. The Boston horse followed gamely and rallied. but the rally was followed by a break, and he crossed the wire two lengths behind Lord Derby. In this heat Boraima showed signs of lameness. Time, 2.09½.

In the third heat Boraima once more took the heat at the start, but his advan-tage was short-lived. He broke at the first turn and again at the stretch. As the racers came toward the wire it was plainly evident that something serious had hap-pened to Boralma, for he went to pieces, and Geers pulled Lord Derby in order not to distance his unlucky rival, and allowed Boralma to come within a length of him at As soon as the heat was over the announcer called for a veterinary surgeon. Dr. G. H. Lee of Boston responded, and found that Boralma had been so badly in-jured that he could race no more. Consequently, with the consent of the judges, he was drawn. In order to fulfill the requirements of the match, Lord Derby trotted the next heat alone and was then awarded the victory. After the last heat had been trotted Lord Derby, accompanied by a runner, trotted an exhibition mile in 2.08.

For two sets the Wrenns by keeping the ball high in the air seemed to have a trifle the better of the play, but the Englishmen, resorting to the same tactics, beat them out.
